BERNHARD KNAUS | FINE ART

artcomedy live: Jakob Schwerdfeger
09.12.2026
Bernhard Knaus Fine Art, Niddastraße 84

With razor-sharp humour and a perspective all of his own, Schwerdtfeger breaks down the barriers between art philistines and the specialist audience. He races through the truly important questions at breakneck speed: What does Impressionism have to do with dog jumpers? Why does Cubism look like a punch to the mirror? And how did the Renaissance become the swot of all eras?

On 9 December 2026, Jakob Schwerdtfeger will be joining us at the gallery to answer the really important questions about art, and he'll be giving us a glimpse into his book "Punkt Punkt Komma Strich, fertig ist die Kunstgeschichte", which has just been published by dtv.

The perfect balance between art history and stand-up comedy! Jakob Schwerdtfeger tears down the walls of the elitist art world and takes you on a passionate tour through the ages. He serves up the absolute highlights of the creative world, presents his personal favourite exhibition and reveals the most exciting behind-the-scenes stories from the museum.

With playful ease, the comedian takes a refreshing look beyond the purely Western canon. The result is an evening full of incredible anecdotes, bizarre art scandals and the best party trivia – it simply makes you really keen to get stuck into culture!

Wednesday, 9 December 2026
Start: 8.00 pm (doors open from 7.30 pm)
Admission: €15, cash payment at the box office
Booking at goralski@bernhardknaus.com

Image: Marvin Ruppert

Bernhard Knaus Fine Art

Niddastrasse 84
60329 Frankfurt am Main
Fon +49 (0)69 244 507 68
knaus@bernhardknaus.de bernhardknaus.com

© Bernhard Knaus 2021